

REMINDER

We still have tickets – call today!

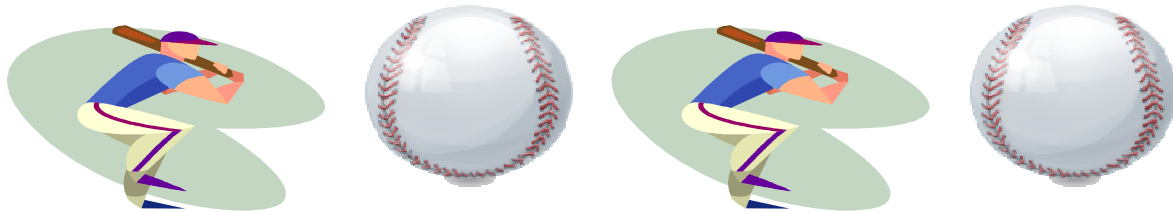

Please join us at Rosenblatt on Sunday July 19, 2009, for an Omaha Royals baseball game where Nebraska Hands & Voices will be recognized as “Community Organization of the Night.”

We will be obtaining discount tickets, have a booth to display information about our organization, throwing out the first pitch and we will have pre-game, on-field interview, as well as an on-air interview with 1180 KOIL during the third inning.

This is a great way to get our name out in the community, enjoy a fun family night out at the ball park and to socialize with other H&V members.

Please RSVP to Kris at kris@handsandvoicesne.org or 203-0673 to order your tickets. We have 100 tickets available at $6.00 each. Invite your family and friends and bring everyone out to the ballgame.

The game begins at 1:35 p.m. on Sunday July 19, 2009.

“What works for your child is what makes the choice right.”